

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

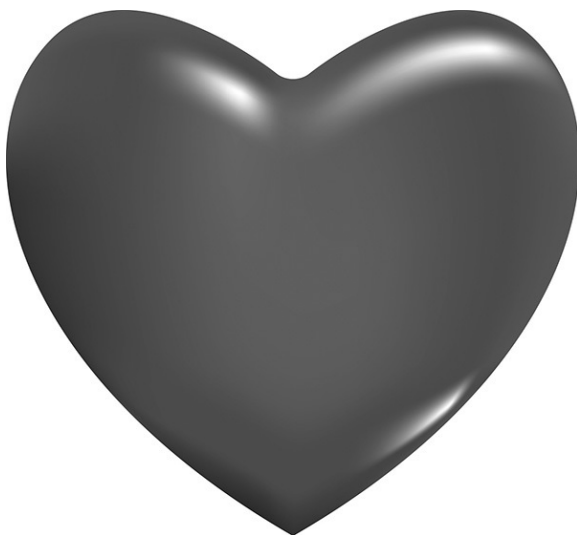

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Your limbs go numb when you see her? it must be love!

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words like climb and dumb.
- I can speculate about feelings and impressions.
- I can use proper intonation in long statements.

Ask your partner:

- Do you often get nervous around someone you like? Why or why not?
- How do you avoid being nervous when you have to speak to someone you like?

Let's Explore!

Peter's date was nothing to write home about. Poor Peter!

* When something is "nothing to write home about", it isn't very good.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: How did your date go yesterday? You must be happy to have met a girl who likes the same things as you!
- Peter: It was a disaster! It was probably the worst date I've ever had.
- Sally: What happened? I thought you guys would have gotten along just fine!
- Peter: I know. That's the problem! We were supposed to meet at a rooftop bar, but when I arrived the elevator was out of order. So I had to climb the stairs all the way to the top. By the time I got to the top floor I was out of breath! My hair was a mess and I didn't have time to comb it. Then, I was so nervous that I kept saying dumb things all evening. She must have thought I was just a boring guy.
- Sally: That doesn't sound good ...
- Peter: Tell me about it! It got so bad that my limbs became numb.
- Sally: Did you at least try to make small talk?
- Peter: I did, but I doubt that it made a difference to her. She kept looking at her watch all evening.
- Sally: You must be really disappointed right now! I'm sorry!
- Peter: Yeah, and she must have felt like I was just a waste of her time. Online dating is so hard!

Let's Practice!

Peter talks about everything that went wrong last night.

Instructions: Read the text again. Choose a word from the box to correctly complete the sentences. Practice saying the sentences aloud. Practice emphasizing the words you chose from the box below. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Word Bank

- so nervous
- to the top
- mess
- time
- dumb
- out of breath
- supposed
- out of order
- comb
- I arrived
- climb

1. We were _____ to meet at a rooftop bar, but when _____ the elevator was _____.
2. So I had to _____ the stairs all the way _____.
3. By the _____ I got to the top floor I was _____!
4. My hair was a _____ and I didn't have time to _____ it.
5. I was _____ that I kept saying _____ things all evening.

Let's Practice!

Peter must have* felt really bad about last night!

*Remember the rule about linking words. "Must have" = Mus-tu.

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistakes. Practice saying the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. You must be happy to have meet a girl who likes the same things as you!
2. You must have thought that the date was a dissaster.
3. You must be really disapinted right now.
4. She must have think you were just a boring guy.
5. She must have felt like you where just a waste of her time.

Extension Activity

Imagine a situation when a first date goes terribly wrong.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a short story (12-14 lines) about a first date.
- Think of a situation where things go wrong in the date.
- Describe what the problems are, and how you deal with them.
- Use at least 4 words with the silent B sound, like numb.
- Read your paragraph to a partner.
- Use proper intonation for long sentences.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about social activities, friendships and relationships.

☐ ☐

I use and say words like climb or dumb.

☐ ☐

I use proper intonation in long sentences.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- dumb (adjective): stupid; foolish
e.g. I was so nervous that I kept saying dumb things all evening.
- to climb (verb): to go up an incline or staircase; to ascend e.g. I had to climb the stairs all the way to the top.
- numb (adjective): deprived of sensation and feeling
e.g. My arms and legs felt numb.
- to doubt (verb): to feel uncertain about something
e.g. I doubt that she found me interesting.
- limb (noun): an arm or leg
e.g. I was so nervous that my limbs became numb.
- to comb (verb): to arrange hair by drawing a comb through it
e.g. My hair was a mess and I didn't have time to comb it.

Learning Points

Silent Letters in English

You don't say every letter in a word in English pronunciation. Some letters are silent, which means that you don't hear them as you would pronounce them normally.

Here are examples of the silent letter b in words. Practice saying the example sentences.

Letter	Words	Pronunciation	Examples
Silent B	climb	clime	I had to climb the stairs.
	comb	cohme	I didn't have time to comb my hair.
	dumb	dum	I kept saying dumb things. doubt	dowt	I doubt that she found me interesting.
	limbs	lim	My limbs became numb.
	numb	num

Learning Points

Linking and Deletion with Must

When a word ending in consonant +/t/ links into a word beginning with a consonant, the final /t/ of the first word is often deleted. This is often the case with the word must.

When you delete (or drop) the final /t/, the sound before the /t/ must link smoothly into the following word.

When the word have follows must, have is reduced to "_ov" or "_av". The 't' sound joins the reduced have.

must have = mus_tuv or mus_tav

Phrase	Pronunciation
must find	mus_find
must be	mus_be
must have thought	mus_tuv thought mus_ta thought

Examples:

- You must be happy to have met a girl who likes the same things as you!
- She must have thought I was just a boring guy.
- She must have felt like I was just a waste of her time.

